

INZ 1085

Working Holiday Scheme Work Visa/Permit Application

for a temporary stay in New Zealand

Who should use this form?

Use this form to apply for a work visa/permit under any working holiday scheme except for the China Working Holiday Scheme. If you are applying under the China Working Holiday Scheme you must apply using the online system at www.immigration.govt.nz/whs. See www.immigration.govt.nz/whs for a list of working holiday schemes and the documents and fees you must provide for each of these schemes. You may be able to apply online.

We will process your application only when we receive all the information and documents we need. If you do not send all the required information, we may return your application.

No person who holds a temporary permit (including a work permit) in New Zealand may provide commercial sexual services, or operate or invest in a business which provides commercial sexual services.

Health requirements

If you intend to be in New Zealand for more than 12 months you must complete a Medical and Chest X-ray Certificate (NZIS 1007) and provide it with your application.

If you intend to be in New Zealand for more than six months but not longer than 12 months, you must provide a completed Temporary Entry X-ray Certificate (NZIS 1096) with your application if you:

- are from a place that is not listed as a low incidence tuberculosis (TB) country, area or territory, or
- have spent more than a total of three months in the past five years in a country, area, or territory not listed as a low incidence TB country, area, or territory.

See the leaflet Health Requirements (INZ 1121) for more information and the list of low incidence TB countries, areas, and territories.

Pregnant women and children under 11 years of age are not required to have an X-ray, unless a special report is required.

If you seek health care when in New Zealand you should carry your passport so that health providers can check whether you are eligible for publicly-funded health care.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007, anyone giving immigration advice will have to be licensed (unless they are exempt). From 4 May 2009, all immigration advisers working in New Zealand must be licensed. From 4 May 2010, all immigration advisers, whether working onshore or offshore, must be licensed. It is an offence to provide immigration advice without holding a licence from these dates. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the Register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, email info@iaa.govt.nz, or write to them at PO Box 6222, Wellesley Street, Auckland 1141, New Zealand.

When filling in this form, please print clearly using CAPITAL LETTERS. Complete all sections of this form.

Section G Declaration

I have provided true and correct answers to the questions in this form.

I understand that if I am issued a work visa or permit under this working holiday scheme I must be able to show on arrival in New Zealand:

- a return airline ticket, or enough money to purchase one
- a minimum of NZ$4200 (or other amount specified in the scheme I am applying under) for my living expenses, in the form of cash, travellers cheques, a bank draft from my bank, or a recent New Zealand bank statement
- evidence that I hold adequate medical/hospitalisation insurance cover for the time I will spend in New Zealand under the scheme, if this is a condition of the scheme I am applying under.

I understand that if I have received immigration advice from an immigration adviser and if that immigration adviser is not licensed under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return my application.

I agree to tell Immigration New Zealand about any changes to my circumstances that occur after making this application.

I agree to leave New Zealand before my permit expires. If I remain in New Zealand after my permit has expired, I may be removed by Immigration New Zealand.

I agree that if I am not entitled to free health care in New Zealand, I will pay for any health care or medical assistance I may require in New Zealand.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to provide information about my health and my immigration status to any health service agency. I authorise any health service agency to provide information about my health to Immigration New Zealand.
